

BPL is an ill conceived idea. It will wreck havoc with Amateur Radio, Military and Transportation services.

When disasters strike it is Ham Radio that consistently is able to offer assistance. When other modes of communication fail Ham Radio ops have time and time again proven that they can assist with emergency communications. Implementing BPL will severely degrade Amateur Radios ability to offer assistance in times of disaster. Please do not allow BPL to proceed any further than the testing stage.